

This new adaptation of the classic tale combines the heroics of Robin Hood with the wit of Gilbert and Sullivan. Written by two members of the society, this is a world premier production!

The show opens in Locksley Village where we find Maid Marian who has become secretly engaged to Robin Hood, the notorious outlaw. Urbeknowns to Marian fiver father) has arranged her marriage to the villatious Sir Guy of Gisbourne. On being coerced golden arrow contest in disquise, but Robin is betrayed and all is lost... or is it?

With all your favourite characters from the legend (and even some morris dancing), this show is a guaranteed delight for both easoned theatregoers and newcomers alike.

For more details and to apply for an audtion email secretary@hullsavoyards.co.uk or call 01482 876918